REMARKS

Rep. Kernell requested that the following remarks be spread in the journal.

Tennessee's Bingo law presently permits compensation to be paid to workers involved in bingo in two separate situations:

1. Any workers may be paid an amount "not in excess of the prevailing federal minimum wage" (T.C.A., Section 39-6-609 (b)(7) (A); and
2. Persons providing security and janitorial services may be paid reasonable compensation, subject to detailed accounting to the regulator with respect to names, dates and hours involved, date and amount paid, and social security number of employer's identification number of the recipient (T.C.A. Section 39-6-609 (b) (7)(C)).

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1988 -- EIGHTY-FIFTH LEGISLATIVE DAY

House Commerce Committee Amendment No. 6 would delete both of the above provisions. Your amendment to House Committee Amendment No. 6 would eliminate the second provisions from the amendment, but not disturb the first provision. In other words, if House Committee Amendment No. 6 is passed with your amendment, the effect will be that no one may be paid for performing bingo services except for security and janitorial services.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-104(g), is amended by deleting the following from the first sentence of such subsection:

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Sections 8-24-102 and 8-24-104, are amended by adding the following as a new subsection to each section:

"The legislative intent of Chapter 363 of the Public Acts of 1987 was to increase the compensation of county officers and clerks of courts in an amount equal to state employees, except in counties of the seventh class as defined in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-101(a)(7), and the funding of the state share of costs was provided in such act. It is the intent of this act to make the maximum compensation specified by Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-102, uniform for all counties within each classification as of July 1, 1988, except in such seventh class counties, and to make the minimum compensation as specified by Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-104, uniform for all counties within each classification as of July 1, 1988, except in such seventh class counties. No retroactive compensation shall be made to such officers and clerks of courts that did not receive a full four and one-half percent (4.5%) increase on September 1, 1987. The compensation of county officers and clerks of court in seventh class counties, as defined in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-101(a)(7), shall not be adjusted on July 1, 1988, as required by this act, but shall be adjusted on September 1, 1988, as required by Section 4 of this act. The funding of the state share of such costs is hereby reenacted as stated in Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 363 of the Public Acts of 1987 and as codified as Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-24-102 and 8-24-104. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any such county official or clerk of court from receiving the prospective annual increase provided by Section 4 of this act."

Any such future changes in compensation shall be provided in accordance with future enactments of the general assembly. Any increase in expenditure by a county resulting from the increase authorized herein shall be appropriated from funds that the county receives from the state government that are not earmarked by statute for a particular purpose.

I am enclosing herewith House Bill 2148, which I am returning without my signature.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1988 -- EIGHTY-FIFTH LEGISLATIVE DAY

This bill exempts from the public records law the official health certificates collected and maintained by the State Veterinarian.

The privacy rights of our citizens dictate that medical records of patients at state medical facilities be confidential. I do not believe the same rationale extends to our livestock.

I recognize the right of the General Assembly to set policy in this area. For this reason, I am allowing this bill to become law, but without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ Gov. Ned McWherter
